Report:

On 27th of April, 2023, the Electoral Literacy Club of Dimoria College organized an Art Competition on the theme “Systematic Voters’ Education and Electoral Participation” at room no. RCC 3. The programme was inaugurated by Co-ordinator NAAC, Dimoria College, Dr. Apurba Kuman Buzarbarua. The competition was judged by Dr. Anjan Kumar Rabha and Dr. Jharna Choudhury. The students from various departments and semesters participated in the competition.

Every student has talent to sketch, and the competition gave all those students from different departments to participate and to draw something creative with the message to cast their valuable vote in the democratic India. This contest gave an opportunity to showcase their creativity skills by making their master piece on the given theme “Systematic Voters’ Education and Electoral Participation”.

Learning Outcome

1. Students have learnt about the importance of Democratic India.
2. Students have developed the awareness about their electoral democratic rights.
3. Students were encouraged to give their vote.
